Re: Trisha Tshudy v. Pennsylvania State University
Case ID No. 4:22-cv-01431

Request for Settlement Conference; Reply to Defendant's Filing

Dear Judge Brann:

Please be advised that I represent the plaintiff in the above-captioned case. I wrote to the Court on November 8, 2022 requesting a settlement conference and defendant replied by letter of November 9, 2022. Suffice it to say that plaintiff and defendant are diametrically opposed on the issue as to whether Dickinson Law School has attempted to constructively discharge the plaintiff, Trisha Tshudy. That is not the reason I am requesting a settlement conference. I note that plaintiff had received several dates for both settlement conferences and hearings on a motion for injunctive relief in the Eastern District. None of these ever came to fruition. It is understood that we are now in the Middle District of Pennsylvania with its own procedures.

It is now obviously too late for Ms. Tshudy to attend her third year at Dickinson Law School. I would like a settlement conference to address the settlement of this case revolving around what my client needs to do to continue her third year of law school at Dickinson in September, 2023. If these requirements could be put in writing as part of a settlement, I believe this matter could be resolved.

Respectfully,

William C. Reil
